PhoneChurch is working well, but please remember it is live and unless you mute the microphone on your phone everyone can hear anything that is happening at your end of the line. We are still learning how to best use this system and whilst responses during the service are working well, communal singing is causing problems - so for the moment please just listen to the music as it plays rather than singing along.

No Oasis - Please!

From Lisle Ryder, St Patrick's Environment Representative.

In the light of banning by the Royal Horticultural Society at its shows, please would those arranging flowers not use floral foam usually sold as Oasis. Through its use of microplastics, it causes serious pollution to the environment. Disposal of remains should not be added to compost, and particles should not be allowed into drains. Alternatives include glass beads or chicken wire scrunched into a vase.

For more info please see this article - <https://www.churchtimes.co.uk/articles/2021/24-september/news/uk/bishop-backs-campaign-for-more-sustainable-approach-to-flower-arranging>

Come and join us on Zoom for a time of Lectio Divina

Tuesday afternoons at 16:00 - Lectio Divina is a contemplative way of reading the Bible. It dates back to the early centuries of the Christian Church and is a way of praying the scriptures that leads us further into God's word. It is listening with the 'ear' of the heart that allows scripture to speak to us in new ways while also deepening our relationship with the Living God.

Liberia News

Simon and Grace Stretton-Downes Simon is a dentist leading a team at a clinic at the Eternal Love Winning All (ELWA) Hospital in Monrovia. Grace is a nurse and will support Simon as well as seeking God's direction for her role in the mission field. The couple are sent by St Gregory's Church, Crakehall and are working for Serving In Mission (SIM)

Rosemary Gaven is our local contact and keeps us update with the news they send Simon reports that Prof. Rob's visit went well and much progress was achieved with the curriculum for the Therapy School and a good meeting with the Health Minister. Eddie arrived home for two weeks. A team of ex-pat nurses, Grace and Simon, helped by a generous donation helped distribute a nice meal to the hospital staff thanking them for their work this year and was much appreciated. They went on leave on the 23rd December to join Alison, Charles and Nathan in Johannesburg for 3 weeks. They didn't know if they could fly but the ban was lifted at the last minute and they are very excited to see their family very soon and Grampa is looking forward to meeting his little grandson Nathan for the first time. God is good! They wish to thank all at St Gregory's and others for their continued support and prayers as they minister in Liberia and wish you all a Happy Christmas and send their love.

And Finally

From +Helen-Ann Ripon.

Amongst the many news headlines recently, one in particular caught my eye: 'James Webb: A $10bn machine in search of the end of darkness'. The story concerns a new telescope that is due to be launched this month. This telescope, it is hoped, will look deeper into space than ever before, and in so doing will look back in time. The story posed the question that the telescope will help us answer: where do we come from? That's a question that could be answered in a number of ways, but asked in this context it's an invitation perhaps to ponder our existence in a more profound way? Christmas at its core is about God becoming human in Jesus Christ. From that, so much unfolds; a bit like the emergence of light at the dawn of time, that spread so rapidly. The birth of Jesus brought that light into a new perspective: illuminating our world in ways that continue to resonate. Perhaps part of our role as disciples is to help that divine light to shine more brightly in our communities? Sometimes that requires the light to illumine our own lives in new ways, and that might not always be a comfortable experience! Whatever the case may be, John puts it like this in his prologue (1.5): 'the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it'.

1Photo of an angel from the home of the Archbishop of Polynesia, Suva, Fiji (Advent 2016)

I am immensely grateful for all that you do; often quietly, persistently and alone, going above and beyond the call of duty. Thank you. I very much hope and pray that amidst the busyness of the coming weeks, there will an opportunity for rest and refreshment.

As we continue to navigate the complex uncertainties and anxieties of our current age, my prayer this Christmas is for the light of Christ to continue to shine. In the words of Bernadette Farrell's hymn: 'Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the darkness. Christ, be our light! Shine in your church gathered today'.

Happy Christmas, and all prayers and best wishes for 2022!
