09:00 Family Service- St Patrick's Patrick Brompton & PhoneChurch
10:45 Baptism - St Mary's Hornby
10:45 Holy Communion- St Gregory's Crakehall
15:45 Jubilee Celebration Service - Spennithorne Green

Readings Genesis 11.1-9, Psalm 104.26-36,37b*, Acts 2.1-21, John 14.8-17[25-27]

Pentecost Collect God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Jubilee Collect O Lord, the Way, the Truth, and the Life, her, we give you thanks for your servant Elizabeth our Queen. May she ever be provided with all she may need for her ministry among us, strengthened to meet every demand which her office may make, and in all things nourished by your word and example, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit live and reign, world without end. Amen.

Post Communion Faithful God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal: open our lips by your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

BCP Collect God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end.

17:00 BCP Evensong - St Oswald's Hauxwell

Readings Proverbs 8.1-4,22-31, Psalm 8, Romans 5.1-5, John 16.12-15

Collect Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever.

BCP Collect Almighty and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace, by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity; We beseech thee, that thou wouldest keep us stedfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, who livest and reignest, one God, world without end.

17:00 BCP Evensong - St Andrew's Finghall

Readings Isaiah 65.17-25, Acts 10.34-43, & John 20.1-18

Collect O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

BCP Collect O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping of thy commandments we may please thee both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Readings 1 Kings 19.15-16,19-21, Psalm 16, Galatians 5.1,13-25, & Luke 9.51-62

Collect Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son: sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.

BCP Collect O Lord, who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love; Keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

During the week

09:30 Tuesday Morning Prayer - St Michael's Spennithorne

10:00 Wednesday - Holy Communion Peter and Paul - St Gregory's, Crakehall & PhoneChurch

PhoneChurch continues to work well alongside our gathered services, but please remember it is 'live' and unless you mute the microphone on your phone everyone can hear anything that is happening at your end of the line. We are still learning how to best use this system and whilst responses during the service are working well, communal singing is causing problems - so for the moment please just listen to the music as it plays rather than singing along.

For the liturgy/service booklet please follow the link for the relevant service.

The June Newsletter from The Diocese of Leeds is now available.

Come and join us on Zoom for a time of Lectio Divina

Tuesday afternoons at 16:00 - Lectio Divina is a contemplative way of reading the Bible. It dates back to the early centuries of the Christian Church and is a way of praying the scriptures that leads us further into God's word. It is listening with the 'ear' of the heart that allows scripture to speak to us in new ways while also deepening our relationship with the Living God.

Wensleydale Filling Station

Friday 10th June 19:00 – 21:00

Thornborough Hall, Moor Road, Leyburn. DL8 5AB with Brian Wilson

Brian, together with his wife Janice, came to faith in their late teens in an Anglican church in Sheffield and have been active members of the same church ever since. Brian has served there as a Lay Minister for the last 4 decades. After an early career in (what became) Fujitsu, he moved to a senior position with IVP, the publisher of the Bible Speaks Today and Tyndale Commentary series and most of John Stott's writings, spending 13 years as the Chief Executive. He has just retired from his role as Operations Manager with St Hild College, helping to train around 160 students for church leadership across the Yorkshire region.

Filling Station is an opportunity for local Christians to meet together to celebrate their faith and provide an opportunity for all to hear about the love of God for their lives

Recommended Book

Approximately one in five adults have experienced childhood abuse in one form or another.

A newly published book, "Writing the Wisdom - Creative writing as healing from childhood trauma" by Barbara Glasson & Penny Johnson, explores the effects and emotional impact that trauma and abuse have on a person's life whilst also bringing together religious, spiritual, pastoral and therapeutic understandings. Language and litany, listening and witnessing, healing, forgiveness and wisdom are all discussed.

Liberia News

Simon and Grace Stretton-Downes

Simon is a dentist leading a team at a clinic at the Eternal Love Winning All (ELWA) Hospital in Monrovia. Grace is a nurse and will support Simon as well as seeking God's direction for her role in the mission field. The couple are sent by St Gregory's Church, Crakehall and are working for Serving In Mission (SIM)

It was wonderful to welcome Simon and Grace back to the benefice last Sunday at our United Benefice Service at St Andrew's Finghall. Simon gave us an update on all their work in Liberia - and of his trip to Windsor to receive his OBE!

We watched a short video presentation and encourage you to come and see the full presentation on Wednesday 8th June in the Village Hall at Crakehall starting at 19:30.

They thank and appreciate those who pray for them and send greetings. They look forward to seeing as many folk as possible soon.

And Finally

From Rev'd Chris

How will you leave your mark? On a recent visit to the far side of Yorkshire, I was struck by the mass of names and dates on the stonework of a church porch. This was no recent graffiti, but the marks left by many generations, and it got me wondering what marks do we leave, consciously or unconsciously on our own buildings and landscapes? How do we hope to be remembered? What will our legacy be? I suppose it is no surprise that I am thinking about legacy during a weekend where we are marking the remarkable reign of our wonderful monarch. Her 70 years of faithful and faith-filled service are an amazing testimony to what can be and has been achieved over her decades on the throne.

In the vast and comprehensive coverage of the Jubilee time and time again the commentators reflect on her Majesty's faith. Whilst this faith in Christ is deeply held and quietly exercised, it is far from private but lived and breathed out in her and our national life - and has been from the start.

'When I spoke to you last... I asked you all, whatever your religion, to pray for me on the day of my Coronation - to pray that God would give me wisdom and strength to carry out the promises that I should then be making... I have been uplifted and sustained by the knowledge that your thoughts and prayers were with me.' Her Majesty the Queen, Coronation Day, 2 June 1953

I also had the privilege of attending a 'Beacon Event' high on the hill above Hauxwell. The community gathered, the trumpet sounded and the beacon was lit. As we warmed ourselves by the flames we scoured the horizon for other Beacons recognising that ours was just one in a chain of thousands illuminating the Nations of the Union.

Tomorrow we will celebrate both Pentecost, the birth of the Church with the coming of the Holy Spirit and the Platinum Jubilee with thanksgiving for Her Majesty and Hope for the future. And once again we will hear the voice of the Psalmist echo across the aeons of time as we look not to the hills, the highpoints of defence, but to God, the God who made Heaven and Earth -

I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From where does my help come?
My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved;
he who keeps you will not slumber.
Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade on your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all evil;
he will keep your life.
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and for evermore.

Psalm 121 (ESVUK)

So do come and join us as we continue to give thanks and continue to try and play our part in building God's Kingdom here in earth as it is in heaven and in doing so leave, in our own small way, our mark for future generations to see.
