WENSLEYDALE FILLING STATION

At our meeting on the 8th May, we announced that we are closing Wensleydale Filling Station. Our final meeting will be held in July this year. We have been running for 13 years as one of many Filling Stations nationally. The background to our meetings was 22 years of United Services in Leyburn, originally developed by Helen Lee.

Over our time as Filling Station we have met at Thornborough Hall in Leyburn, The Key Centre in Middleham and for some time at Newton Le Willows. We have had over 70 speakers from as far away as Uganda, but mostly from within the UK! We have had a large number of people attending our meetings and sharing in gospel teaching and worship. We have had a variety of groups and individuals leading our worship and encouraging us to pray and praise God together (including, for several years at the start of this ministry, Richard Cutting and team from Northallerton Baptist and Graham Pentelow from Snape).

Our personal thanks to all those who have helped in any way with the running of our meetings over the years and especially to Michael Hepper and Chris Lawton for their leadership, Julian and Barbara Spykerman who have faithfully served from the start. More recently to Linda Collingwood with her help in management and to Dave and Sarah Clark who have given valuable oversight and led our worship for some time. As some are moving on to other aspects of mission and ministry or to other parts of the country it feels the right time to bring these meetings to a close. There are other opportunities for fellowship already developing in the Dale including: Prayer and Praise Live, 4th Friday, 7pm @ Chantry Hall, Bedale.

Please do advertise our last two meetings and come and share with us as we are led in Bible Study and worship by Matt and Sebb:

Friday 12th June: Speaker – Matt Hirst (Baptist Minister) from Hawkshead in the Lake District

Friday 10th July Speaker – Sebastian Rabb (CEO, The Jonas Centre, Redmire, Wensleydale)

Many thanks and God's Blessing

Mike and Pauline
